DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn. All previously made rejections are now withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 42-61 and 63-66 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Applicant is suggested to call the Examiner so that this Application can be allowed, if this rejection is not understood. At present the Examiner believes that the claims require a little more clarity, especially now that Applicant has cancelled the nonwoven claims. Since the claims are now directed to a woven or knitted fabric, it is suggested that some wordage be added to the independent claims stating the same and not just implying that the fabric is in fact a woven. Additionally, the most crucial feature of this invention that is not found in claims—that being how varying densities form the puckered and flat regions. Applicant should amend the claims to show the presence of the hot fluid streams, so that a seersucker fabric is not misconstrued as a fabric having puckered and flat regions with varying weave densities.
